

VETERANS SPIRIT

JULY — SEPTEMBER 2016

VOLUME 16, ISSUE 3

From the Administrator

I am very proud to announce three of our staff members were honored June 8th for the Southern Nevada "Endeavor Awards," presented by Nevada Health Care Association's Perry Foundation. Honored at the event were Mary Lambert, Rehab Program Manager for the Most Extraordinary Therapist; Poppy Helgren, Director of Nursing for Outstanding Nurse Leader; and DiAnn Lawson, Certified Nursing Assistant for Nursing Assistant of the Year. All the winners were chosen by exhibiting exceptional compassion and commitment to residents, staff members, and their community.

The Nevada State Veterans Home was the only long-term care facility in southern Nevada to have three staff members recognized by receiving awards honoring them for their work in specific areas within the facilities and communities.

Other News

Pardon our dust... Our Home has been is under repairs & remodeling!

We have slurry sealed and striped the parking lots, removed the hallways carpeting to replace with new vinyl flooring, and resealed the roof and foundation on the exterior of building. Still to come.... new furniture in the neighborhoods shared living areas.

A thank you to our devoted and professional staff. The Federal Veterans Administration Survey was conducted May 24-26, 2016 and out of a possible 158 standard review criteria, our Home met 157 elements. This was an improvement from the 2015 VA review.

In the Works...

Through a grant program we are in the process of certification with the Music and Memory Program. The program discovers the healing power of personalized music. Grounded in extensive neuroscience research about how the brain responds to music giving pleasure to persons with dementia. It also helps reduce resistance to care, reduces agitation and sun-downing, fosters a calmer social environment, and reduces reliance on anti-psychotic and anti-anxiety medication.

Nevada Veterans Assistance League, Inc

The League was established to meet the ongoing needs of America's heroes who reside at the Nevada State Veterans Home (NSVH). Gifts to Nevada Veterans Assistance League (NVAL) ensure a sense of security, happiness, dignity, independence, and usefulness for residents.

Residents determine, through their own Resident Council, how funds designated for their use are spent. In the past, they have chosen outings to see the Las Vegas 51's, Mandalay Bay Shark Reef, UNLV football and basketball games, numerous shows on the Strip, many cultural attractions, such as museums, art shows, and theatre.

NVAL ... making a veterans' facility a veterans' Home through your gifts of love.

The Nevada Veterans Assistance League, (NVAL) is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization pursuant to all IRS regulations. Gifts to NVAL are tax deductible according to each individual donor's situation. Gifts to NVAL support the needs of residents who reside at the Nevada State Veterans Home. Donations can be sent to : NVAL at PO Box 60464, Boulder City, NV 89006-0464

Father's Day by Carlos Dye, Volunteer

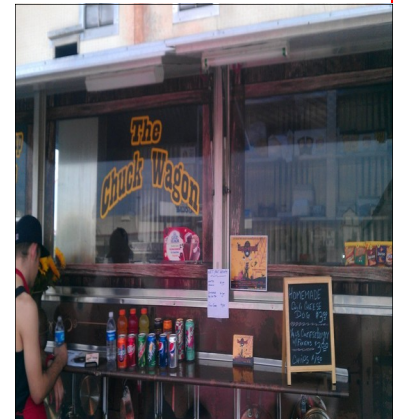

Our annual Father's Day celebration was another great success! Once again a huge thank you to Nelson Sardelli with Gary Olds, the Pan Draggers Car Club, the Chuck Wagon BBQ, the Las Vegas Radio Control Club, Volunteers and Staff. With our combined efforts, and phenomenal organizational skills we mastered another full day of FUN!

Many of the volunteers who are veterans themselves and accompanied residents throughout the day. In the morning they strolled or rolled through the vintage, tricked-out cars, while others were hitting up the Chuck Wagon BBQ food truck. Residents reminisced with proud car owners, some of whom had travelled from as far away as Illinois. Among the car show guest was the jovial Las Vegas Radio Control Club that had large scale fighter planes.

Once lunchtime hit, our Town Hall was filled to maximum capacity with residents, families, guests and volunteers to be entertained by an amazing lineup of entertainers, including master magician Lance Burton. This was the 13th year that Las Vegas legend Nelson Sardelli has coordinated the entertainment to the delight of everyone. Another round of applause and thanks to everyone that made this day possible for our Veterans, families and friends.

Kindle Fire Tablets On Loan

Through a generous grant from the MGM Resorts Foundation, the Senior Center of Boulder City in cooperation with the Boulder City Library are offering Kindle Fire tablet on loan to our residents. The Library and Senior Center will assist in downloading e-books, audiobooks, digital periodicals, and movies for residents to enjoy. The size and weight of the Kindle Fire tablet allows those with strength and mobility issues to easily lift and hold the device while reading or listening to a new book.

Ageless Aviation Dreams Foundation

Ageless Aviation Dreams Foundation is a non-profit organization established and dedicated to honor seniors, particularly United States military veterans by providing “Dream Flights” in a vintage, open cockpit biplane at no cost. The mission of the Foundation is to “Give Back To Those Who Have Given.”

The Boeing Stearman is the same aircraft used to train many military aviators in World War II. They were used as trainers for the United States Army Air Force, United States Navy, and the Royal Canadian Air Force. There were at least 10,626 built during the 1930's and 1940's. In post-war years, they were auctioned off and used for crop dusting or aerobatics. The timeless design of the radial engine was commonly used in aircraft from the 1920's-1940's. Its low, raspy engine sound is unforgettable and has the innate ability to bring back nostalgic memories for veterans and seniors. A BIG thanks to Ageless Aviation Dream Foundation for making memories that will last a lifetime!

“Caring for Nevada’s Heroes”

The Chaplain's Voice by Chaplain Bob Nycek

We live in a world that is being attacked by fear, failure, discouragement, pain, anxiety and worry. No matter where you turn, we are inundated with the overwhelming sense that all hope is lost. There is not a person today who has not struggled with this simple word. It is almost as if it has morphed into another one of those four letter words we dare not say. We search after it as if it were equal to a unicorn or that elusive leprechaun that lives at the end of the rainbow.

I have come to the realization that what we all desire to have, what we long for most, and what fuels us for the future is hope! I believe that we all need hope. We need to hope in something that is bigger than we are; to hope that we can overcome our current situation; to hope that life is not just a gathering of unrelated events smashed together and inconsequential to our existence. We need hope!

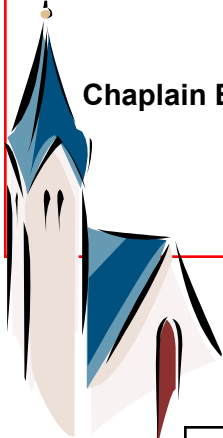

Hope is defined as a feeling of expectation, a desire for a certain thing to happen. A feeling of trust. It even invokes a sense of drive. I wonder though, in what do you hope? In whom do you hope? Is your hope based upon a set of conditions that must be met? Do you really hope after anything?

In case you would like something a little more solid to stand on, may I share with you a verse from Psalm 119:49. In this verse the author is having a conversation with God and says, "Remember your word to your servant, for you have given me hope. My comfort in my suffering is this: your promise preserves my life."

Wow! You mean that I can find hope in the promises of God's Word? I can find hope in the work of Christ on the cross? I can find hope in the empty tomb? That is such a relief that I can hope in someone, in something and for something. It is so relieving to know that our hope, the believer's hope, is not in vain.

I don't know what you're dealing with today as you read this. I don't know if you have lost your hope. If you have lost sight of what to even hope for. If you've been so beaten by your past that you cannot see the hope that can be yours. This much I do know about you though: that what you need in your life is hope. What can help you turn things around in your life is hope. I can tell you without hesitation that my hope is in the solid rock of Jesus' blood and righteousness.

So let me leave you with question: Where is your hope and what are you going to do about it?
